Herman Miller Wins Boston Strategies International's 2009 General Industries Award for Excellence in Supply Chain Synchronization

October 6, 2009

Boston Strategies International is pleased to announce Herman Miller, Inc. as the winner of the 2009 General Industries Award for Excellence in Supply Chain Synchronization!

Our firm has conducted an in-depth global supply chain benchmark study in which diverse companies responded from countries as widespread as Australia, Fiji, Germany, India, Italy, Nigeria, Norway, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, and the United States.

Herman Miller won based on its superior Order Cycle Time Consistency, Supply Management, and Return on Working and Fixed Capital.

“Herman Miller is pleased to accept this award for supply chain excellence,” announced Drew Schramm, Senior Vice President, Global Supply & Logistics. “It is great to be recognized by Boston Strategies International as a company that strives towards constant improvement in the supply chain field. This award would not be possible if it were not for the tremendous support we have received from our suppliers. We are constantly challenged to work with our suppliers to eliminate waste and improve our process to achieve our customers' needs. This can only happen with a strongly integrated relationship, innovative thinking and a good deal of hard work. Thanks to all for helping us achieve this recognition.”
